Whales are divided into two groups. One group lacks teeth. Most large whales belong to this first group. Dolphins belong to the second group which has teeth. Dolphins range in size from five feet to thirteen feet. The dolphin has a torpedo shape, long and thin. It can move quickly through the water. The dolphin doesn't have bones. The fins keep the dolphin going in a straight line. Their skin is smooth and has no scales. A thick layer of blubber or fat is under their skin. This layer keeps them warm. Dolphins communicate with their voices and have good hearing. With these abilities they can catch food and speak with other dolphins. To find victims they make a clicking sound. The dolphins hear the echo of the clicking and know where the victim is located. This method of finding victims is called echolocation. Dolphins can also communicate with their friends by sounds. Sounds send different messages. Each dolphin has its own specific sound. Being able to communicate well with others is a sign of great intelligence.

23. According to the passage, which of the following statements is true?

- A) All dolphins have the similar sounds.
- B) Dolphins belong to the first group of whales.
- C) Dolphins move quickly in the water.
- D) Dolphins are divided into two groups.

24. Which of the following explains how does blubber help a dolphin?

- A) It helps to swim very fast.
- B) It can keep a dolphin warm.
- C) It provides food for it.
- D) It sends a signal to others.

25. Why does a dolphin use echolocation?

- A) It helps it to dive very deep.
- B) It helps it to find victim.
- C) It helps it to communicate.
- D) It helps it to jump off the water.

26. All of the following statements are TRUE, EXCEPT ...

- A) Different sounds send different messages.
- B) Dolphins have poor hearing of the echoes.
- C) Each dolphin has its own specific sound.
- D) Dolphins can find victims by echolocation.

As I love children, I work at a summer camp for kids every year. Nearly all the kids know how to swim and play table-tennis before they come, but things like rock climbing are new experiences for them. Some of them are very nervous and deny taking part in it. Some children miss home. You might expect them to be young children but they are actually from the ten to thirteen-year-olds. We don't let them use their mobile phones. First we tell them they can phone home after lunch. Then when they ask again, usually after dinner, we suggest doing it the next day. Most children will be fine in a couple of days. It's surprising how many children come and thank us because they have had a great time. It's not just the children who miss. We have parents who call all the time, asking how their child is getting on, which is quite unnecessary. Often their son or daughter will be busy, playing games, so we have to tell parents to ring back another time.

27. According to the passage, what is the writer trying to do in this text?

- A) Suggest how parents should choose a winter camp.
- B) Advise children how to have lunch at a summer camp.
- C) Explain how children make friends at a research camp.
- D) Describe how children enjoy staying at a summer camp.

28. According to the passage, what does the writer say about rock climbing at the camp?

- A) All children already know how to do it.
- B) Some children find it very boring.
- C) All children prefer rock climbing to swimming.
- D) Some children refuse to take part in it.

29. According to the passage, what surprises the writer about the children at the camp?

- A) They complain if they cannot phone their parents.
- B) The youngest ones find it hard to be away from home.
- C) They miss meal times with their parents.
- D) They seem grateful for their experience there.

30. According to the passage, what does the writer think about some parents?

- A) They should visit their children instead of phoning them.
- B) They should allow their children to bring food to camp.
- C) They need to be reminded to phone their children.
- D) They don't need to keep on phoning all the time.
