

Summary Report: Quality Assurance and Accreditation, February 7, 2024

The Quality Assurance and Accreditation meeting at Alisher Navo'i Tashkent State University of Uzbek Language and Literature served as a forum to review accreditation standards, assess compliance status, and discuss strategies for enhancing academic quality. Attendees engaged in constructive dialogue, sharing insights on initiatives to improve teaching methodologies, research practices, and student support services. Emphasizing a commitment to academic excellence, the meeting underscored the university's proactive approach to quality assurance. Moving forward, action plans were formulated to address areas of improvement, reflecting the institution's dedication to continuous enhancement and adherence to accreditation standards.