

Summary Report: Alumni Relations and Development

The Alumni Relations and Development meeting at Alisher Navo'i Tashkent State University of Uzbek Language and Literature provided insights into strategies for engaging alumni and enhancing fundraising efforts. Discussions focused on alumni engagement initiatives, fundraising campaigns, and potential contributions to academic and extracurricular programs. Emphasizing collaboration and strategic planning, the meeting highlighted opportunities to strengthen connections with alumni and leverage their support for university priorities. Action plans were devised to enhance alumni engagement, expand fundraising efforts, and explore avenues for alumni involvement in advancing academic and student-focused initiatives, underscoring the university's commitment to alumni relations and development.