

Summary Report: Open Forum, January 31,2023

The Open Forum at Alisher Navo'i Tashkent State University of Uzbek Language and Literature provided a platform for diverse stakeholders to raise unaddressed topics and concerns. Attendees engaged in open dialogue, covering issues ranging from campus facilities maintenance to student engagement and research collaborations. Emphasizing collaborative problem-solving, the forum showcased the university's commitment to fostering a transparent and inclusive environment. Moving forward, action items were identified and assigned, highlighting the university's proactive approach to addressing community needs and promoting continuous improvement.