

“IN THE SPIRITUAL AND MORAL EDUCATION OF YOUTH EFFECTS AND SIGNIFICANCE OF LITERATURE”

Project leader: Ph.D., Associate Professor G. Ashurova

Research goals and objectives: The main goal of the project is to each Age-appropriate personal-creative possibilities as social as possible From bringing it to the level of the most active manifestations of useful activity, it is higher to create the conditions and practical assistance within their means to raise them to the level of a spiritual person. Our spiritual heritage scientific based on concrete facts about the classical specimens and their creators' conclusions and results are described.

Brief description of the project: In the history of Uzbek literature in the past new names have been discovered that have left a bright mark, exploring their literary heritage Dozens of literary and historical sources are textual prepared for publication by our scientists. The history of Uzbek literature is based on the ideology of independence and purely scientific approaches. Coverage based on historical facts, each fact and evidence in the formed scientific environment scientific examination and enrichment with new factual materials caught. Uzbek is an integral part of the history of Turkic literature Creation of a multi-volume monograph on the history of literature in world Turkology leads to a new level of science.

The result is new interpretations scientific pamphlets, textbooks based on concrete facts is created. These are scientific pamphlets, textbooks on the philology of higher education faculties, literary scholars, doctoral students and researchers is a valuable resource for industry representatives. Also Uzbek in the study of the people's past, their literary heritage, their spiritual values The monograph also serves as a guide.