

Gulnoza
Ahmatovna
Jo'rayeva

---

Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs and Spiritual-Educational Work,
Doctor of Philology

---

Gulnoza Jo'rayeva In 2023, took on the role of First Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs and Spiritual-Educational Work. In her current role, she is responsible for enhancing the university's engagement with the community, particularly focusing on youth development and moral-educational initiatives. She develops and implements programs that aim to cultivate a sense of social responsibility among students, encouraging them to actively participate in community service and cultural projects.

---

By fostering partnerships with local organizations, she facilitates opportunities for students to engage with various societal challenges, promoting a spirit of volunteerism and civic duty.

Dr. Jo'rayeva Gulnoza also leads initiatives aimed at enhancing students' personal and professional development, offering workshops, seminars, and cultural events that enrich their academic experience.

She works to ensure that the university's educational offerings align with societal needs, integrating practical experiences that prepare students to contribute meaningfully to their communities. Her scholarly contributions include two manuals, two monographs, and a textbook, along with over 50 scientific and journalistic articles. She dedicates herself to promoting educational equity and cultural understanding, enhancing the university's role as a center for societal engagement and active citizenship, fostering a generation of students committed to making positive changes in their communities.