Chairwoman of the Women's Council,
Doctor of Pedagogical Sciences,
Professor

Odinakhon Jamoldinova is a Doctor of Pedagogical Sciences and Professor currently serving as the Chairwoman of the Women's Council at the Tashkent State University of Uzbek Language and Literature. In this role, she leads initiatives aimed at promoting gender equality, supporting women's professional and academic development, and fostering an inclusive and empowering environment for female faculty members, staff, and students. Her leadership focuses on implementing programs that enhance women's participation in higher education, encourage leadership among young scholars, and strengthen the university's commitment to the principles of equality and social responsibility.

Throughout her career, Dr. Jamoldinova has held several key positions that highlight her dedication to education, youth policy, and social development. She previously served as the Vice-Rector for Research and Innovation, where she was responsible for advancing the university's scientific capacity and promoting innovative educational practices. Earlier, as Deputy Chair of the Central Council of the Kamolot Youth Social Movement and Chair of the Republican Kamalak Children's Organization, she actively promoted youth engagement and empowerment initiatives across Uzbekistan.

Her tenure as a Member of the Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis (2015–2020) enabled her to contribute to policymaking in science, education, culture, and sports, strengthening the national framework for educational reform. Later, as Advisor to the Minister of Higher and Secondary Specialized Education (2020–2023), she focused on enhancing spiritual and educational initiatives and ensuring compliance with state language policies. Dr. Jamoldinova's extensive experience, combined with her strong commitment to women's empowerment and educational excellence, continues to make her a key figure in promoting social progress and gender equality in Uzbekistan's higher education system.
