

Orzu
Abdujabbarovich
Davranov

Vice-Rector for Academic Affairs,
PhD, Associate Professor

Orzu Davranov is PhD in Economics and Associate Professor, a member of the University Council and currently serves as the Vice-Rector for Academic Affairs at Alisher Navo'i Tashkent State University of Uzbek Language and Literature, appointed to this position on June 11, 2025.

He began his professional career in 2007 at the Tashkent Institute of Textile and Light Industry, working in the Computer Center as an operator from 2007 to 2011. Between 2012 and 2019, he held positions at the Department of Management of the same institute, including Senior Researcher, Assistant, and Senior Lecturer. In 2018, he successfully defended his PhD dissertation on "Key Directions for Enhancing the Economic Potential of Uzbekistan's Textile Industry Enterprises."

From 2019 to 2024, Dr. Davranov served as Senior Specialist at the Ministry of Higher Education, Science and Innovation in the Department for Organization, Licensing, and Quality Assurance of Educational Institutions, and from 2024 to 2025, he was Head of the Department for Strategic Planning, Methodology, and WTO Affairs at the same ministry.

Since June 11, 2025, he has been fulfilling the role of Vice-Rector for Academic Affairs at Alisher Navo'i Tashkent State University of Uzbek Language and Literature, where he oversees curriculum development, academic policy implementation, and quality assurance, contributing significantly to the advancement of higher education in Uzbekistan.
